Palm Valley Animal Society is at Maximum 'Cat-pacity'

Palm Valley Animal Society currently has 701 cats in our care.

Edinburg, TX (10/8/2020) – Palm Valley Animal Society is over cat capacity and is in need of community support. Currently, there are 701 cats in our care that need to find new homes.

We encourage potential adopters to stop by our Trenton or Andrews Center, open 7 days a week between 11am and 7pm to find their new fur friend.

All adoption fees for cats are currently being waived until further notice.

A $25 deposit for spay/neuter procedures may apply, but all adoptable cats are up to date on vaccines and can be microchipped to their new caretakers.

Can't adopt? Register your home at pvastx.org/foster and help care for our kittens as a short or long term foster parent.

For info and pictures of all our adoptable cutie-cats, visit pvastx.org/cats.
